Associate of Arts in Religious Digital Media

A dynamic two-year program fusing religious studies with practical digital media skills at Ebed–Melech University.

Program Overview

The Associate of Arts in Religious Digital Media program prepares students for roles in the evolving field of religious media production, digital storytelling, and effective communication within religious organizations. This innovative program bridges traditional religious education with modern digital communication techniques.

Program Highlights

60 Credits

Comprehensive curriculum covering religious studies and digital media production

100% Online

Flexible learning designed for working professionals and remote students

4 & 8 Week Classes

Accelerated format allows focused, intensive learning experiences

1.5 Years

Fast-track completion to launch your career in religious digital media

Semester 1: Building Foundations

The first semester establishes core competencies in communication, writing, and religious understanding that form the foundation for advanced digital media work.

1

ENG 101 – English Composition I

3 credits | Develop essential writing and communication skills

2

REL 101 – Introduction to World Religions

3 credits | Explore diverse religious traditions and beliefs

3

MAT 105 – Fundamentals of Mathematics

3 credits | Build analytical and problem-solving abilities

4

COM 110 – Fundamentals of Communication

3 credits | Master interpersonal and public communication

5

Elective Course

3 credits | Customize your learning path

Semester 2: Expanding Perspectives

Core Courses

- HIS 110 – World History I (3 credits)
- ART 120 – Creative Expression through Arts (3 credits)
- PHI 210 – Philosophy of Ethics (3 credits)
- REL 120 – Foundations of Christian Faith (3 credits)
- Elective Course (3 credits)

Learning Focus

Semester 2 broadens your understanding of history, ethics, and creative expression while deepening your knowledge of Christian foundations. These courses develop critical thinking and artistic skills essential for compelling digital storytelling.

Semester 3: Digital Media Immersion

The third semester introduces specialized digital media courses alongside continued development in literature and communication, marking the transition to professional media production skills.

LIT 201 – Literature and Spirituality

3 credits | Analyze spiritual themes in literary works

COM 220 – Communication and Spirituality

3 credits | Integrate faith principles into communication strategies

RDM 301 – Digital Media Fundamentals

3 credits | Master essential digital production tools and techniques

RDM 302 – Religious Storytelling in Digital Media

3 credits | Craft compelling narratives for faith-based audiences

Semester 4: Professional Integration

The final semester synthesizes religious knowledge with advanced digital media applications, preparing graduates for immediate professional impact in religious organizations and media ministries.

ROM 301

Organizational Behavior in Religious Settings (3 credits)

COM 301

Rhetoric and Faith (3 credits)

RDM 310

Media Ethics and Spirituality (3 credits)

RDM 330

Digital Media and Worship (3 credits)

Plus one elective course (3 credits) to complete your degree requirements.

Career Pathways

Media Producer

Create engaging video content, podcasts, and multimedia presentations for churches, ministries, and faith-based organizations.

Digital Communications Specialist

Manage social media, websites, and digital outreach campaigns for religious institutions and nonprofit organizations.

Content Creator

Develop written, visual, and multimedia content that communicates faith messages to diverse audiences across digital platforms.

Worship Media Coordinator

Design and implement digital media elements for worship services, including live streaming, graphics, and presentation materials.

Why Choose This Program?

Unique Integration

This program uniquely combines theological depth with cutting-edge digital media skills, preparing you to communicate timeless truths through contemporary platforms.

Flexible Learning

The 100% online format with accelerated 4-week courses allows you to balance education with work, ministry, and personal commitments while completing your degree in just 1.5 years.

Practical Application

Every course emphasizes hands-on skills and real-world applications, ensuring you graduate ready to make an immediate impact in religious media and communications.

For Such a Time as This

"And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?" (Esther 4:14)

Your calling to communicate faith in the digital age begins here. Join Ebed–Melech University's Associate of Arts in Religious Digital Media program and discover how your unique gifts can impact the world through modern media.