

Master of Business Administration with a Spiritual Ethos

The Master of Business Administration with a Spiritual Ethos (M.B.A.) program at Ebed-Melech University is a specialized graduate program that integrates traditional business education with a focus on spiritual and ethical principles. This program is designed for individuals aspiring to advance their careers in business leadership while grounding their decision-making in spiritual values.

Program Overview

36

Credits

Complete curriculum for comprehensive business education

100%

Online

Fully flexible learning experience

8

Week Classes

Accelerated format for working professionals

1-2

Years

Complete your degree at your own pace

Semester 1: Foundation of Spiritual Leadership

The first semester establishes the core principles of integrating spiritual intelligence with business leadership, strategic thinking, and financial stewardship.

MBA 501

Leadership and Spiritual Intelligence

3 credits – Develop leadership skills grounded in spiritual awareness and emotional intelligence

MBA 502

Strategic Management and Faith-Based Decision Making

3 credits – Learn to make strategic business decisions aligned with spiritual values

MBA 503

Financial Management with Ethical Considerations

3 credits – Master financial principles while maintaining ethical integrity

Semester 2: Operations and People Management

The second semester focuses on marketing strategies, operational excellence, and human resource management through the lens of values-based leadership and stewardship.

1

MBA 504

Marketing Strategies with Values-Based Approach

3 credits – Create marketing campaigns that reflect ethical principles and authentic values

2

MBA 505

Operations Management and Stewardship

3 credits – Optimize business operations while practicing responsible stewardship of resources

3

MBA 506

Human Resource Management and Spiritual Well-being

3 credits – Foster workplace environments that support both productivity and spiritual wellness

Semester 3: Global Perspective and Social Responsibility

MBA 507

Managerial Economics with Social Responsibility

3 credits

Apply economic principles while considering broader social impact and community welfare.

MBA 508

Global Business and Cross-Cultural Spirituality

3 credits

Navigate international markets with cultural sensitivity and spiritual awareness.

MBA 509

Business Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility

3 credits – Develop frameworks for ethical decision-making and sustainable business practices that benefit all stakeholders

Semester 4: Innovation and Integration

The final semester brings together entrepreneurial thinking, technological innovation, and culminates in a comprehensive capstone project that demonstrates spiritual business leadership.

MBA 510

Entrepreneurship and Innovation with a Faith-Based Perspective

3 credits

MBA 511

Information Technology Management and Ethical Decision-Making

3 credits

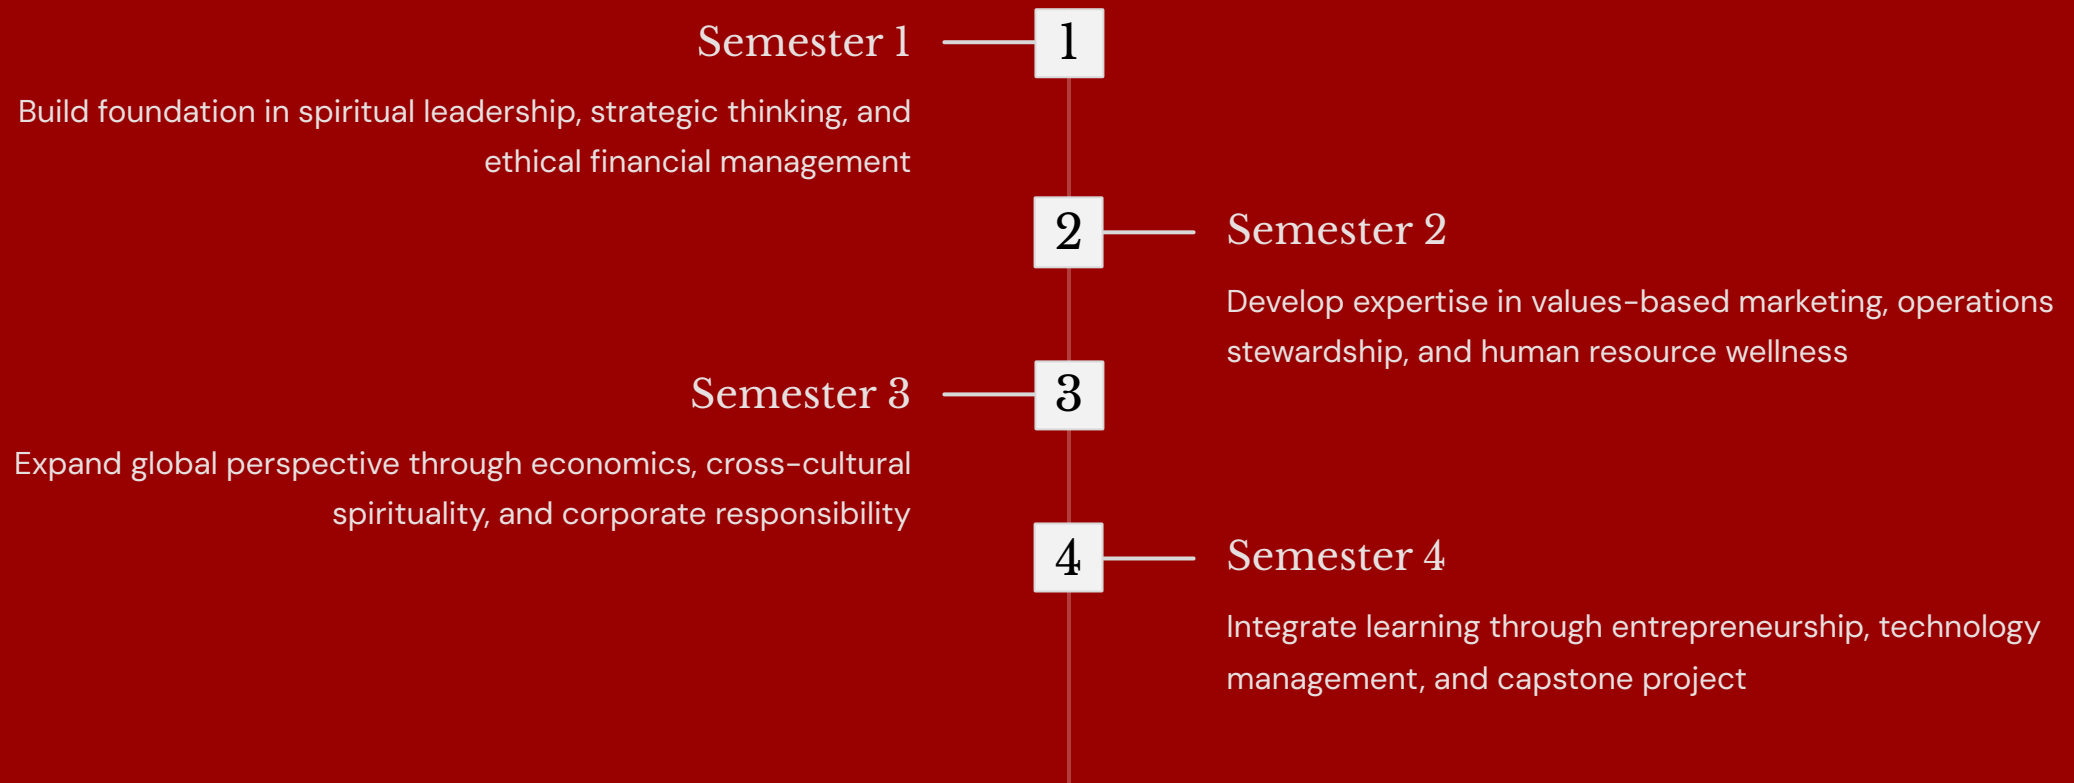

CAP 513

Capstone Project in Spiritual Business Leadership

6 credits

Program Journey: Your Path to Spiritual Business Leadership

Why Choose This Program?

Integrated Approach

Seamlessly blend traditional business education with spiritual and ethical principles for holistic leadership development

Values-Driven Leadership

Learn to make strategic decisions that align with your spiritual values while achieving business objectives

Global Impact

Develop skills to lead organizations that create positive change in communities worldwide

Flexible Format

Complete your degree 100% online with accelerated 8-week classes designed for working professionals

Biblical Foundation

"And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"

Esther 4:14

This program is built on the belief that business leaders are called to their positions for a purpose. By integrating spiritual wisdom with business acumen, graduates are equipped to lead with integrity, compassion, and vision in today's complex business environment.

Begin Your Journey Today

Transform Your Career with Purpose

The M.B.A. with a Spiritual Ethos program prepares you to become a business leader who makes decisions grounded in spiritual values and ethical principles. Whether you're advancing in your current career or launching a new venture, this program provides the knowledge, skills, and spiritual foundation for meaningful success.

Join a community of like-minded professionals committed to leading with integrity and making a positive impact in the business world.

Ebed-Melech University

Leading with purpose, serving with excellence